

This assignment gave an important understanding of lines and points in projective geometry. I was able to brush up important concepts which were taught during the live lecture. This task was a great exercise to test our understanding of lines and points in the projective space.